Credit Opportunities Full Discretion - Disclosures

Polen Capital Credit, LLC ("the Firm", "Polen Credit") is an investment adviser, registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which specializes in high yield securities and special situations investing.

Polen Credit was formerly known as DDJ Capital Management, LLC. On January 31, 2022, Polen Credit was acquired by Polen Capital Management, LLC. The transaction resulted in no changes to the Polen Credit investment team or its investment process.

The Polen Credit - Credit Opportunities Full Discretion Composite ("the Composite") has an inception date of September 30, 2013 and a creation date of April 2013. The Polen Credit - Credit Opportunities Full Discretion strategy seeks to provide high current income and the potential for capital appreciation by investing in a diversified portfolio primarily consisting of lower-rated bank loans and high yield fixed-income securities, private debt, distressed debt, and other similar obligations as well as warrants and common stock which are generally expected to be received in connection with restructurings of existing obligations or as part of a high yield issue. Portfolios following the strategy will be concentrated with no limit on the allocation to illiquid securities. Effective December 2023, the composite name was changed from Polen Credit Total Return II Composite. There have been no additional changes to management or investment objective.

Gross returns do not reflect the deduction of investment management fees, but are net of trading expenses, deal-related legal expenses and foreign withholding tax. Net returns reflect the application of actual management and, if applicable, performance-based fees to gross returns. Composite dispersion is the equal-weighted standard deviation of annual gross returns of all accounts included in the Composite for the entire year. Composite dispersion is not applicable for composites which contain five accounts or fewer for the entire year. The three-year annualized standard deviation measures the variability of the Composite gross returns and the benchmark returns over the preceding 36-month period. A list of composite descriptions, a list of limited distribution pooled fund descriptions, and a list of broad distribution pooled funds as well as policies for valuing investments, calculating performance, and preparing GIPS Reports are available upon request.

As of December 31, 2024, 23% of the Polen Credit - Credit Opportunities Full Discretion Composite assets were valued using subjective, unobservable inputs.

The Composite's strategy is a total return strategy where investments consist primarily of private debt instruments. No benchmark is presented as we believe that no benchmark appropriately reflects this strategy.

The standard management fee for the composite is 1.00% (per annum). In addition to the base management fee, performance-based fees (15%) are assessed annually on net capital appreciation in excess of a hurdle rate (8%) above the then-applicable "high water mark". Performance-based fees for a separately managed accounts are available upon request.
