Management's Discussion of Fund Performance

- For the 12 months ended April 30, 2026, the Polen Growth Fund (the "Fund") underperformed the Russell 1000® Growth Index and the S&P 500® Index.
- Stock selection in the Information Technology sector was the primary detractor from results (largely stemming from Software exposures) and Health Care also presented a headwind. By contrast, selection in Consumer Discretionary and Communication Services was positive.
- As for sector positioning (a residual of bottom-up stock selection), the overweights to Financials and Health Care represented meaningful headwinds to relative performance.
- The top three relative stock detractors (vs. the Russell 1000® Growth Index) were NVIDIA, ServiceNow, and CoStar Group. Positive relative contributors were Microsoft, Costco Wholesale (not owned), and Home Depot (not owned).
